50 Plus English Culture Course

50 Plus English Course (Group size: Maximum 8 students)

- Our 50 Plus course is for busy professionals or students who are 50 years and over and who would like to spend a short period of up to one or two weeks practising their English in small groups of up to 8 students maximum.
- The focus of the course is principally on speaking and vocabulary expansion and is especially designed for students with life experience and who are looking for a course with a difference.
- Our course includes a selection of “talking trips”, interesting class topics and activities in an environment designed to promote fluency and confidence in the English language.

50 plus English course – 23 hours including 3 afternoon activities plus 1-day trip at the weekend.

50 Plus English Culture Course

50 Plus English Course Suitable to level B1 plus

Designed For

- Students who are 50 plus and who have a minimum B1 level of English.
- Working professionals whose principal aim is to practise their speaking and fluency skills.
- Students with life experience who would like to practise their English in class whilst taking part in interesting and inspiring activities and trips.
- Closed groups – We can design a very specific and tailored programme according to the group requirements.

Morning Class

- Each morning is carefully planned by your teacher whose aims are to encourage “natural” speaking.
- Some guided practice and attention to linguistic improvement in areas such as grammar, pronunciation and vocabulary will be given on a daily basis. Students will be given a reflection journal and invited to record daily English practice and thoughts.

Afternoon Trips and Activities

For three afternoons a week students will take part in a selection of activities and trips and this is an extension of their class.

The teacher or activity guide will accompany the students and encourage them to engage in conversation with the group.

Saturday Day Trip

The course includes a day trip for each Saturday.

This includes a guided tour in the morning and free time in the afternoon.

50 Plus English Culture Course
